COLUMBUS OSTEOPATHIC ASSOCIATION
CODE OF REGULATIONS

ARTICLE I – NAME
The name of the Academy, incorporated under the laws of Ohio as a not-for-profit, educational corporation, shall be the Columbus (District VI) Academy of Osteopathic Medicine, Inc., hereinafter referred to in this Code of Regulations as “the Academy.”

ARTICLE II – PURPOSES
The purpose of the Academy shall be as follows:

(A) To exchange and disseminate information among its members as to the improvements and advancements in the field of medicine and surgery as disclosed through the reported work and research of scientific societies.

(B) To encourage mutual understanding and cooperation between the members of the Academy and between the agencies of the local, state and federal government, having to do with the health and welfare of the people.

(C) To support the growth and development of Osteopathic schools of medicine, its organizations at national, state and local levels, its hospitals and colleges.

(D) To maintain and promote the highest moral and ethical standards in the practice of Osteopathic Medicine.

ARTICLE III – ORGANIZATION
Section 1. The Academy, a sub-divisional society of the Ohio Osteopathic Association (OOA), is governed by the Code of Regulations of that Association insofar as they relate to divisional societies. The Academy shall embrace the following counties; (1) Crawford (2) Delaware (3) Fairfield (4) Fayette (5) Franklin (6) Hocking (7) Knox (8) Licking (9) Madison (10) Marion (11) Morrow (12) Perry (13) Pickaway (14) Ross (15) Scioto (16) Union.

ARTICLE IV - MEMBERSHIP
Section 1. The membership shall consist of the present members of the Academy and of such others as shall be elected in the manner prescribed by the Code of Regulations.

Section 2. An applicant for regular membership in this Academy shall be a graduate of a recognized college of Osteopathic Medicine and shall be licensed to practice in the state of Ohio. Candidates for membership shall present a written application, together with the full amount of the dues, through the OOA or to the Secretary-Treasurer of the Academy. The application shall be on the prescribed form with the endorsement of two members of the Academy. This application shall be acted upon by the Executive Council of the Academy. The name of the applicant shall be read at the next meeting of the Academy and, if no objection is received within thirty days, the Secretary-Treasurer shall enroll the applicant as a regular member and notify said applicant of his election to membership provided, however, that the applicant is a member in good standing of the OOA. If an objection is filed, within the specified time, the Executive Council shall make full investigation and take such actions as its findings warrant.

Section 3. Delinquencies and Reinstatements
A member whose dues shall remain unpaid, for three months, either in the Academy or in the OOA, shall become suspended and his name shall be dropped from the roll until such time as he shall be reinstated. He may be reinstated in both the Academy and the OOA before the expiration of six months, by the payment of his delinquent dues. If dues are not paid as stated, the individual shall forfeit his membership in the Academy and reinstatement can be made only through the normal procedure required of all applicants as outlined in Article IV, Section 2.

Section 4. Regular members residing in Franklin County must attend at least seventy-five percent of all, regularly scheduled meetings of the Academy. Members residing in other counties, in the Academy area, must attend at least fifty percent of all regularly scheduled meetings. The Executive Council will consider reasonable excuses, when a member finds it impossible to attend the meeting because of illness, attendance at a postgraduate study course, etc. Membership may be revoked if the attendance requirements is violated.

Section 5. Associate Membership
The Executive Council of the Academy may grant Associate Membership to Allopathic physicians, to teaching, research, administrative or (executive) employees of approved osteopathic hospitals and to administrative employees of this Academy or affiliated organizations accepting doctors of osteopathy and students in osteopathic colleges. Dues will be set by the Executive Council. Associate members shall not have the right to vote.

Section 6. Life Membership
By action of the Executive Council of the Academy, the Academy may confer the title, Life Membership, on anyone who has attained the age of seventy years or who has completed fifty years of Osteopathic practice, whichever comes first, and who has been in good standing for twenty-five consecutive years immediately preceding. Such members shall have the privileges and duties of regular members but shall not be required to pay dues or assessments. The Academy may recommend names of Academy members to the Board of Trustees and the House of Delegates to the OOA for consideration of Life Members in the OOA, in accordance with the Code of Regulations (By-Laws) of the Osteopathic Association. Such nominations shall be submitted in writing to the OOA Executive Director for presentation to that Board of Trustees.

Section 7. Special Membership
By specific action of the Executive Council of the Academy, special membership may be granted to Osteopathic physicians who are in training or meet other regular membership requirements but have retired, maintain limited practice or live out-of-state, providing such applicants maintain membership in the OOA or in the state Osteopathic Association of the state in which the applicant resides or practices. Dues for special membership will be established by the Executive Council on an individual basis.

Section 8. Honorary Memberships
By a two-thirds vote by the Executive Council and approval of the majority of the membership, the Academy may confer the title of honorary member upon any person, not eligible to regular membership, as an honorary reward for outstanding service to the profession.

Section 9. Provisional Membership
Upon receipt of a completed membership application including full payment of appropriate dues, the Executive Council shall consider the applicant for provisional membership in the Academy. A two-thirds vote of the Executive Council is required for this membership.

The category is in effect until the applicant is considered at the earliest possible meeting of the Academy membership and under no condition can membership in this category be longer than none months. Members in this category shall enjoy all privileges and responsibilities of regular membership except they shall not be eligible to vote.

ARTICLE V – CODE OF ETHICS

Section 1. The membership of this Academy shall be governed by the Code of Ethics adopted by the OOA and the American Osteopathic Association.

Section 2. Discipline and Ethics
Any member of this Academy who is found guilty of professional or personal conduct detrimental to the welfare of the Academy, the OOA, or the profession of Osteopathic medicine and surgery, or who violated the Code of Ethics, may be temporarily suspended or disciplined by the Executive Council of the society whose rules are violated, provided the accused has been given the opportunity to be heard in person, or through a representative, and is found guilty. All cases involving disciplinary action or violation of the Code of Ethics shall be reported to the OOA Ethics Committee through its Executive Director. Such reports will be made in writing and will set forth all available information pertinent to the case. Under this section, the Board of Trustees of the OOA will be the final authority in directing that a member be suspended or expelled from the Academy.

ARTICLE VI – OFFICERS

Section 1. The Officers of the Association shall be: President, Immediate Past president, President-Elect, Vice President, Secretary-Treasurer, Trustee to the OOA and Executive Director, if appointed.
